

Introducing WZRD Radio

Hello magical friends, and welcome to WZRD Radio!

WZRD Radio exists to share the music of the Harry Potter fandom with the world.

From the earliest bands like Switchblade Kitten and Harry and the Potters to the newest wrockers just beginning their wrock careers, it's all celebrated on the podcast.

WZRD is the product of the hostwitch hearing "if you want something to exist in the world, sometimes you have to do it yourself" one too many times. She just wanted a wizard rock radio show to listen to, darnit!

Who

Your hostwitch, Bess, is a relatively latecomer to the wrock scene. She never got to attend a Wrockstock or see MC Kreachter perform. She has, however, spent many happy hours at Yule Balls and virtual concerts, which is kind of the same thing.

Where to listen

WZRD Radio can be found on Stitcher, Deezer, Apple Podcasts, and most other podcasting platforms.
